

INHERITANCE AND ESTATE LAW

Firon Law Firm is one of Israel's leading law firms in Inheritance and estates. The firm's unique expertise, broad experience, and extensive professional knowledge have made a great impact on this field in the State of Israel, helping to shape regulation and playing an active role in amending existing legislation.

The firm works closely with large, high worth clients in crafting and drafting wills while maintaining absolute discretion and taking into consideration all of our clients' specific and complex requirements, in Israel and abroad, based on our deep understanding and thorough mastery of Israeli law and in collaboration with local firms in matters of international law.

The department's team, driven by knowledgeable, expert, and richly-experienced attorneys, designs optimal solutions for the full spectrum of its clients' legal, commercial, and business needs and handles large, complex inheritance disputes, be they local or international, as well as commercial disputes involving family and estate law. Our team advocates effectively for the firm's clients, appearing in a wide range of probate proceedings including will contests, will rescission, invalid gifts within the family unit, etc.

Firon Law Firm integrates resources from its family law and private wealth management practices in order to furnish its clients with an all-encompassing and uncompromising approach to their individual and family's legal needs. The department leverages its synergy with all of the firm's departments and primarily with the commercial litigation department. This interdepartmental coordination facilitates strategic tax planning and minimization.

Our combination of personal attention, sensitivity, and discretion in professional legal counsel, enriched with years of experience, yields creative, innovative solutions, allowing us to give our clients among the best of legal services in trusts and estates law in Israel.
