

FAMILY LAW

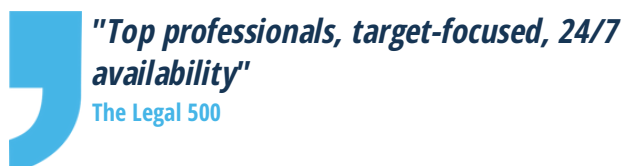

In September 2021, the Law Office of Lihi Cohen Dembinsky merged with Firon Law Firm Established in 1998, the Law Office of Lihi Cohen Dembinsky was consistently recognized, prior to the merger, as one of the leading boutique law firms in family law by the local ranking guides DUNS and BDI, owing to its vast experience in handling high profile cases in both the civil and rabbinical courts.

Firon law firm's family law department offers professional service, with sensitivity and discretion, for issues ranging from divorce, support, visitation, and parental estrangement, through partnership dissolution, balancing of resources, goodwill, guardianship, estate management, will contest, and kidnapping (Hague Convention), as well as litigation regarding continuous power of attorney.

Personal and attentive relationships, legal know-how, skilled litigation, and building unique strategies are an inseparable part of the service we provided to each and every client.

Similarly, the department boasts unique expertise in drafting domestic harmony agreements, and, alternatively, handling divorces, as well as preparing joint life and divorce agreements. The department team is possessed of extensive, professional experience in handling family law cases in all forums including the Family Court, rabbinical courts, and the various appeals courts.

The firm's family law department fully leverages its synergy with the rest of the firm's departments, especially the trusts and estates department and private wealth and trusts department, which supports high-net worth businesspeople in Israel and abroad with all aspects of managing and preserving family wealth for future generations.
